

Name _____

Number _____

You have been working in Art on an invention that will make the world a better place. You will be writing a descriptive paragraph describing your invention that you will podcast in the lab. Your paragraph should be 7-10 sentences long and include details describing what your invention is and how it will be used. Use the brainstorming area below to gather ideas before you start to write.

Your final paragraph is due: _____

Name of Invention

Simple Machines Used in the Invention

Who will this Invention help?

How does this Invention work?